

LE MANS CLASSIC: THE TICKET OFFICE IS OPEN!

Le Mans Classic, episode 10, will be held from July 2 to 5, 2020. Amongst other novelties, the circuit will be open to the spectators as early as Thursday afternoon.

For almost 100 years now the 24 Hours of Le Mans, a major catalyst in the field of technology, has written the history of motor sport - and that of the motor car. The race was held for the first time in 1923, an almost impossible feat for the era! The 10th running of Le Mans Classic in 2020 makes it an irreplaceable treasury of passion. Its principle and its impact are unique and it is reserved for cars that have raced in the 24 Hours of Le Mans (the car itself or another of the same type).

The cars classified by period make up six distinct grids and each one takes part in three races between 16:00 on Saturday and 16:00 on Sunday - 24 Hours. The times of the three heats (one run at night for each grid) are added up and give the main overall classification. Another classification in keeping with pure Le Mans tradition is calculated on an Index based on age and cubic capacity. And the six cars with the same number, one per grid, make up a team and are also classified as such.

Two additional categories have been created; Group C (1982-1993) and Endurance Racing Legends (1990-2010).

Le Mans Classic 2020 will once again be the opportunity to escape in another motor sport era: 700 racing cars on track, more than 8,500 vintage club cars, numerous animations, an auction... without forgetting Little Big Mans, the grid with mini racing cars driven by children from 7 to 12! And for the first time, the paddocks and the village will be open from Thursday afternoon.
